

Invitation

We are pleased to invite you to a training for pension fund trustees and officers

Understanding the Implications for Investment Returns and for Beneficiaries of Climate Change

This training will provide an overview of the relationships between climate change and financial investments. By working through case studies and taking part in group discussions, attendees will become better equipped to assess their fund's climate risk exposure and understand the steps to take to start tackling them.

The training will be delivered by Meg Brown, previously Global Head of SRI and Climate Research at Citi.

on

Friday January 10th from 9:30 -12:30

Lunch will be available after the event

at

Legal & General Investment Management

One Coleman Street,

London, EC2R 5AA

Please RSVP to Kat Baird on 020 7403 7806 or katherine.baird@shareaction.org

Meg Brown is a freelance climate finance expert who was Global Head of SRI and Climate Research at Citi Investment Research from 2008-2012. A well-respected financial analyst in this specialist area, Meg has also worked with BlueBay Asset Management, Carbon Tracker Initiative, The Global Impact Investors Network (GIIN) UK Liaison.

ShareAction is a UK registered charity that works to promote an investment system which serves savers, society and the environment. In particular, it encourages pension funds and other institutional investors to be active owners of listed companies and to integrate long-term environmental, social and governance (ESG) risks into investment analysis and shareholder engagement.

The United Nations-supported Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI) Initiative is an international network of investors working together to put the six Principles for Responsible Investment into practice. Its goal is to understand the implications of sustainability for investors and support signatories to incorporate these issues into their investment decision making and ownership practices. In implementing the Principles, signatories contribute to the development of a more sustainable global financial system.

Legal and General Investment Management (LGIM) is the investment management arm of Legal & General Group, a FTSE 100 company. LGIM is one of the world's leading providers of index fund management and a major investor in global fixed income markets. As one of the world's largest investment managers, LGIM understands that scale brings responsibilities. The company plays an active role in the companies we invest in, from exercising shareholder voting rights to directly engaging with companies at board level.

