

Job title: European Network Manager
Company: Principles for Responsible Investment
Salary: Competitive for a not-for-profit
Location: Frankfurt, London or Paris

The Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI) is currently looking to recruit a European Network Manager for their growing team. This global initiative works at the centre of responsible investment, assisting investors in integrating environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) issues into investment processes and ownership practices.

This new regional-focused position will be responsible for providing practical guidance to investors across various countries on the implementation of responsible investment practices. Your role will include:

- Building relationships with asset owners and investors in Germany, Switzerland, Austria, the Netherlands, Belgium and France
- Supporting signatories in their implementation of the Principles through best practice development and dissemination, shareholder collaboration, and other relevant activities
- Liaising between the European Network and the rest of the PRI community
- Organising local events and workshops and encouraging European engagement with the PRI
- New signatory recruitment in Europe and representation of PRI at events
- Feedback to the PRI on signatories' activities and progress

This is a unique opportunity to support and further develop the PRI's established network within Europe. The ideal candidate will have:

- Thorough knowledge of the finance sector within Germany (required), and Austria, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Belgium and France (desired)
- Fluent German, high-level written and spoken German and French
- Proficient knowledge of responsible investment as a whole and environmental, social, and governance issues
- Relevant work experience in finance, investment analysis or institutional sales
- Excellent communication and project management skills, be self motivated and able to work without supervision
- Able to confidently speak in public to both small and large audiences in German, English and French
- Able to travel frequently and at short notice within Europe
- IT literate, knowledge of Salesforce will be a plus
- Experience of organizing events, desirable

To apply for this role, please send your CV and covering letter explaining why you are suited to the position to Simone Awramenko at Acre who is managing this recruit. Please attach your covering letter as a separate document, rather than in the email text.

Email: simone.awramenko@acre.com

Phone: +44(0)207 400 5589